20 July 2019

Picnic Under the Planets Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is Picnic Under the Planets?

Jointly organised by Science Centre Singapore and the Smithsonian Channel, in partnership with Blue Ant Media and StarHub, Picnic Under the Planets is an after-hours event to commemorate the moon landing's 50th anniversary. Held at the Lakeside Lawn at Science Centre Singapore from 6pm to 11.30pm, this outdoor event will feature activities such as movie screenings, a Super Cool Science Show, digital planetarium shows and stargazing sessions* and fringe activities.

Science Centre Singapore will be screening two movies, which will be chosen by our Facebook fans during two separate social media polls. Find out more about the social media polls on www.facebook.com/ScienceCentreSG.

In our effort to celebrate this monumental event, Science Centre Singapore will also be launching the "Moonshot 50" exhibition, which will showcase "To the Moon: Snoopy Soars with NASA" travelling exhibition.

**Kindly note that all outdoor activities are weather permitting.*

2. What is the admission rate to Picnic Under the Planets?

All guests can enjoy complimentary admission to Picnic Under the Planets.
